GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT REGISTRATION & PAYMENT

- 1. TUITION: A one-semester course is $100. A two-semester course is $200.
  - a. Both costs breakdown to a little more than $6 per week, which is more affordable than most community colleges and most other homeschool programs.
  - b. I am dedicated to providing homeschool families with a high-quality and affordable education, which is why I did not raise my rates for more than 10 of my first years of my business.
  - c. Previous customers with returning students or new students (younger siblings) can still pay my original rates; please contact me for details.
- 2. REGISTRATION FEE: There is NO registration fee.
- 3. REFUNDS: There are NO refunds.
- 4. COST OF MATERIALS: There are no costs for materials, with the following exceptions:
  - a. Families do have to provide their own books for literature courses and their own movies for movie analysis courses. Families are welcome to use their local library or other free or low-cost sources, such as streaming services for movies or online sites with entire copies of the books available.
- 5. DISCOUNTS: Discounts are available for numerous situations. Please email me for a quote for the total cost of courses before submitting your registration form and payment!
  - a. Previous customers pay original tuition fees, as mentioned above.
  - b. One student in the family taking more than one of my courses in a semester/school year.
  - c. Multiple students in the same family taking my courses in the same semester/school year.
  - d. Multiple students from multiple families whose parents register their children for the same course(s) in the same semester/school year.
  - e. Multiple students from the same homeschooling group whose parents register their children for the same course(s) in the same semester/school year. Verification will be required.
  - f. Families with one or both parents on active military duty or who are in the Reserves and who are military veterans. Verification will be required.
  - g. Families performing missionary work in a country other than the United States. Verification will be required.
